A CANDY CANE CHRISTMAS

Special Edition

A Candy Cane Christmas

On December 4th, we hosted our annual holiday party at the library. This event was attended by 59 people which included a special visit by Santa Claus! When walking in, Santa was there to greet everybody. Some kids even got their photo taken with him! In the children's section there were festive coloring pages for the little ones.

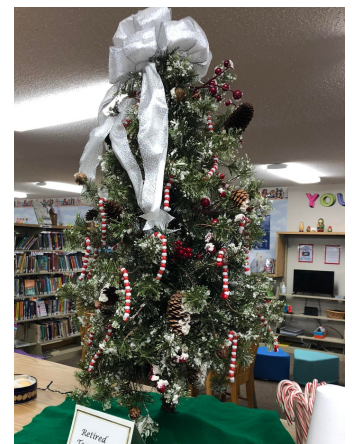

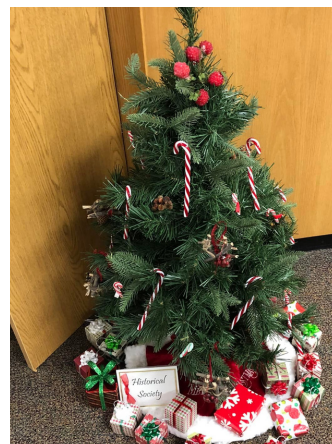

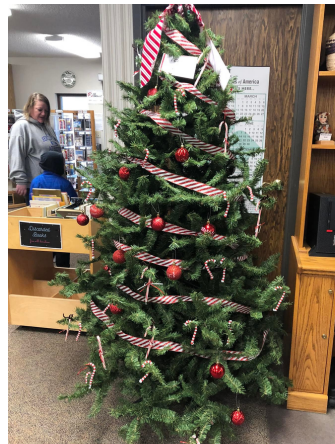

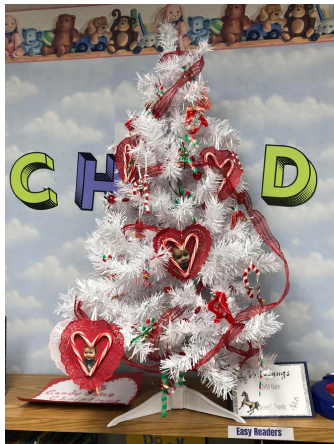

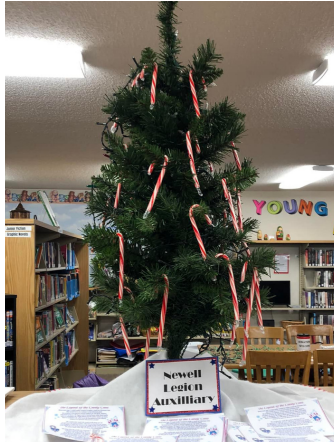

The tween/teen section was turned into a Christmas ornament boutique, hosted by the Junior Advisory Board. All money raised from selling these ornaments goes towards new books for the Junior Fiction section in the library!

We had sugar cookie decorating set up for the kids as well. It was so much fun to see what designs they came up with. The sprinkles were a big hit!

In the back room, we had a Christmas movie playing on our new projector. The movie chosen was "Arthur Christmas" and then a little bit of "Frozen."

All in all, it was a fun filled morning and an amazing opportunity to visit with the community. We wish to thank every person who came to our party and also to everyone who helped support our library this year. Merry Christmas from the Newell Public Library!

Annual Festival of Trees

Every year, the Friends of the Library put together a festive display of Christmas trees. These trees are brought in and decorated by different groups in the local area.

With this year's theme "A Candy Cane Christmas" we are happy to announce that there are 12 trees on display this year!
