Beautiful Butterflies

This was the last time that we got to do story time and activity with these amazing preschoolers as they are going to be transforming into Kindergartners over summer! For this activity, we went outside to collect clovers, flowers, dandelions and even grass so that we could decorate our very own butterflies! Here's how they turned out!

Toddler Time

With Toddler Time being right before Mother's Day, we thought it would be super cute for them to decorate their mothers bouquet!

We have also made a few updates to our website, specifically towards our newspaper archives and local history page. Now on our home page, there is a button on the orange bookmark at the top right of the page that will take you directly to our archive.

Bookclub Reads

The Newell Public Library has three active book clubs. These are what they are reading this month!

Book Club #1 Books for May

Two years have passed since the events that no one wants to think about. Everyone has tried to move on, but there's something about this place that prevents it. The residents continue to grapple with life's big questions: What is a family? What is a community? And what, if anything, are we willing to sacrifice in order to protect them?

As the locals of Beartown struggle to overcome the past, great change is on the horizon.
